Other Services Offered*

The only root canal therapy option under endodontics was "complex". I would say we are not doing complex treatment, but the "simpler" endodontic treatments. But I selected it since we do provide root canal therapy and that was the only option for it. I also wouldn't put "simple" or something on the website, but let the discussed with the patient tell us how to proceed and we will refer to an endodontic office we work with if necessary...

Brand Voice

Time for a quiz! Your results will help guide us on the tone and personality to use when crafting the site copy + custom responses to online patient reviews.

Instructions: For each question, pick the 1 option that feels most 'right' for your practice.

What is the ultimate "North Star" goal of the practice?*

To provide the safest, highest-quality clinical work possible. v

If your waiting room could speak, what would it say to a patient walking in?*

"Come on in, neighbor! Make yourself at home." v

A patient posts a negative review complaining about a delay. Irrespective of whose fault it was, how would you present yourself in the public reply?*

Note: Hover and keep the mouse over each option if the text gets cut off

Polished and gracious. I want to apologize that the "concierge experience" was lacking, safegua... v

POV: You just finished an appointment. Right before the patient leaves, they admit they were initially nervous, but say the visit went great and they are relieved. What do you say to them?*

"You did wonderful. Now you can walk out of here with total confidence in that new smile." v

How would your practice define a "Treatment Plan"?*

A clear list of necessary steps and costs. No fluff. v

If your practice was an object, what would it be?*

A Diamond (Polished, high-value, precise, radiant). v

What is the biggest compliment a patient could give to you and your team?*

"They are the most competent doctors in the city." v

One or more fields are required.
